

ANNEX D SOURCE OF DATA ON STAFF AND EXPENDITURE FOR LAW AND ORDER

Main sources on personnel

- European Sourcebook 2003
- Barclay and Tavares 2003
- United Nations Office for Drug Control and Crime Prevention

National sources consulted by the Dutch Ministry of Justice (DAJS)

Australia: data found on the internet.

Canada: questionnaire completed by Statistics Canada. Complementary data from Canadian Centre for Justice Statistics.

Denmark:

- data on police and public prosecution are from Politiets virksomhedsregnskab, Rigspolitiet 2001:34.
- data on the judiciary are from Forslag til finanslov 2002, Finansministeriet, 2001(269-270) and Domstolstyrelsen.
- data on the prison system are from Forslag til finanslov 2002 and Finansministeriet, 2001 (263-265).

Germany: data from the internet.

France: data from the internet, including:

- www.interieur.gouv.fr/actualite/budget.2002.htm
- www.interieur.gouv.fr/police/dapn/total.htm
- www.justice.gouv.fr/chiffres/moyens01.htm
- www.justice.gouv.fr/chiffres/cles01.htm
- www.justice.gouv.fr/chiffres/cles01.htm

Netherlands: data from the Ministry of Justice.

Austria: data from the internet, including:

- www.bmf.gv.at/budget/budget2002/bfg2002 Arbeitsbehelf Bundesvoranschlag 2002.
- www.bmf.gv.at/budget/budget2002/bfg2002 Stellenplan 2002.
- Communication of the Bundesministerium für Inneres, April 2002.

United Kingdom: data on England and Wales from questionnaire completed by Home Office.

United States: Data from:

- Gifford, Sidra Lea, Justice Expenditure and Employment Extracts, 1997, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 2000.
- Reaves, Brian A. and Timothy C. Hart, Federal Law Enforcement Officers, 2000, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 2001; and Hickman, Matthew J. and Brian A. Reaves, Local Police Departments, 1999, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 2001. This figure does not include administrative personnel working for Federal law enforcement agencies; figure is for number of employees, not FTE.
- Gifford, Sidra Lea, Justice Expenditure and Employment Extracts, 1997, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 2000. These figures include judicial and legal services in addition to prosecution, for all levels of government. It is estimated that approximately 30% of State and local "Judicial/legal" expenditure and employment are for prosecution.
- DeFrances, Carol J. and Greg W. Steadman, Prosecutors in State Courts, 1996, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 1998. These figures are for State prosecution only; figure is for number of employees, not FTE.
- Rottman, David B., et al, State Court Organization, 1998, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 2000; and Court
- Statistics Project, State Court Caseload Statistics, 1999, National Center for State Courts, 2000; figure is for number of employees, not FTE.

- Gifford, Sidra Lea, Justice Expenditure and Employment Extracts, 1997, Bureau of Justice Statistics, 2000. These figures include probation and parole in addition to prisons, for all levels of government. It is estimated that approximately 23% of State "Corrections" expenditure is for probation and parole. The approximate inmate to staff ratio in jails and prisons is 2.9 to 1; the caseload to staff ratio for probation and parole was 39 to 1 in 1991 (the most recent year for which data is available).
- Justice Expenditure and Employment in the United States, 1999, Bureau of Justice Statistics, febr. 2002 (NCJ 191746).

Sweden: data from public sources, including:

- www.dom.se/dom/Dvhemsida/Domstyolvasendet/fakta%20domeng.htm (website Swedish Courts).
- The Ministry of Justice, factsheet, Ministry of Justice, Sweden, August 2000.
- Information about the Swedish prison and probation service, Fact Sheet, Ministry of Justice, Sweden, August 2000.